

I think you've been a brilliant tutor group. You've always behaved yourselves and you've shared your humour throughout the class. It would be a pleasure to teach you again because your good points always outweigh your bad points.